THE Dedication

Ms. Cindy Hooper

For 21 years, Cindy Hooper has worn more hats than any other member of the North Shore community. She has taught, coached and managed activities for both Middle and Upper School students. In her capacity as Director of Operations, she has not only run the Summer Camp every year, but she has also worked behind-the-scenes to ensure that faculty, staff and students have what they need to get their work done. Without her, the renovation of the Upper School would not have been possible. From coordinating the design and planning the renovation, to the move in—and out—of the temporary classrooms in the modular units, to the actual construction of the building, Ms. Hooper put in countless hours and stayed focused on making the process go as smoothly as possible for the whole community. By helping the school grow both physically and in terms of what we are able to accomplish each day, Ms. Hooper embodies our theme of “Seeds of Change.” We would like to show our appreciation by dedicating the 2011-2012 Mirror to her.

Thank you, Ms. Hooper!

Memories

My favorite 5th grade memory was when Mrs. Scannell dressed up like a Roman soldier. - Malcolm Hansell

My favorite day of 5th grade was when Mrs. Scannell told me we were going to study ancient Rome!

- Robert Wright

My favorite day was the day of the pep rally because I loved how the field hockey team did their routine. It looked awesome!

- Catherine Nowak

My favorite 5th grade memories were god and goddess day, leading the Halloween parade, the Greece debate, and the 4th and 5th grade play.

- Paula Fiegl

My favorite 5th grade memory was the first day of school!
- Max Marshall

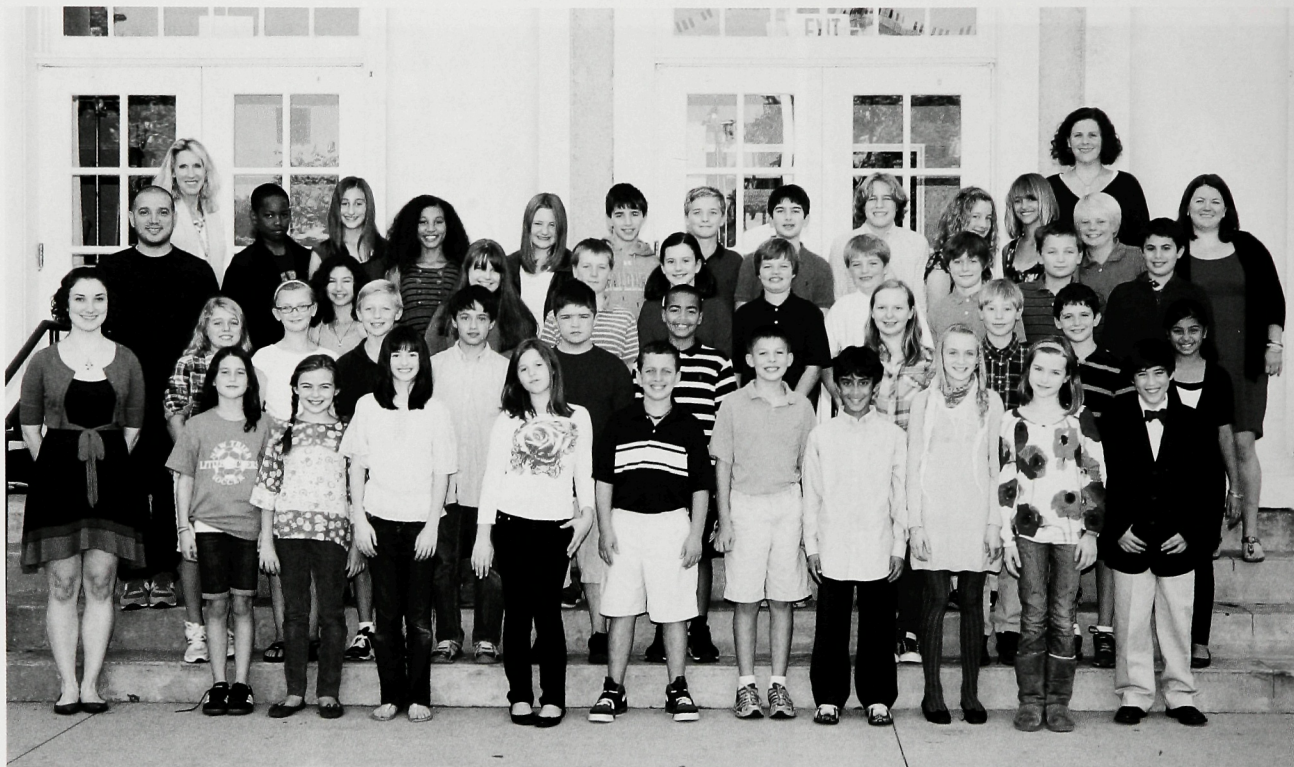

My favorite day of 5th grade was when we got our first letters from our Chinese pen pals because I was so excited.

In Spite of Everything, The Stars

Like a stunned piano, like a bucket of fresh milk flung into the air
or a dozen fists of confetti thrown hard at a bride
stepping down from the altar,
the stars surprise the sky.
Think of dazed stones
floating overhead, or an ocean of starfish hung up to dry. Yes, like a conductor's expectant arm
about to lift toward the chorus,
or a juggler's plates defying gravity or a hundred fastballs fired at once and freezing the sky over the city.

And that's why drunks leaning up against abandoned buildings, women hurrying home on deserted side streets, policemen turning blind corners, and even thieves stepping from alleys all stare up at once. Why else do sleepwalkers move toward the windows,
or old men drag flimsy lawn chairs
onto fire escapes, or hardened criminals press sad foreheads to steel bars?
Because the night is alive with lamps!
That's why in dark houses all over the city dreams stir in the pillows, a million plumes of breath rise into the sky.

-Edward Hirsch

"Do not go where the path may

-Emerson

“The title of this photo is 'The End,' but the ending isn't what defines a season. It's the journey. It's putting up forty-two unanswered points against Alden-Hebron and beating them for the first time in ten years. It's our entire team eating cake on Rockford Christian's field after shutting them out. It's having the greatest homecoming win in school history. It's >. It's eating the damn sandwich. It's losing nine games four years ago and winning nine this year. Who cares what the ending is, I try to keep my entire playing career in perspective, and I'm content with it. The memories I have with all of you will stay with me for the rest of my life.”

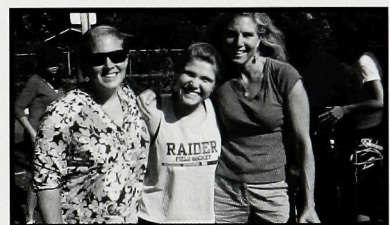

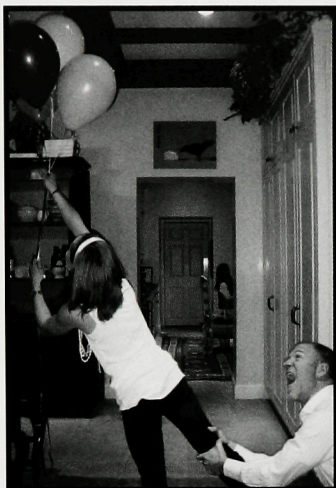

“What's more is that this is only my ending. For most of you, there's still a final chapter or the beginning of a new football story in a new place. Do whatever you can to make that journey the best one, and to create new memories to go along with those you've experienced with me and the rest of your teammates. Forreston was my final hour, but for the rest of you, there's still a window for even greater success. Whether you choose to open that window or leave it shut is up to you, but I have a feeling that the majority of you want to see what's behind that glass and never have to feel that feeling of helpless defeat that I had felt for the majority of my life in football and one last time in Forreston. You have the opportunity, you just need to grab it, and I know all of you will.”

i carry your heart
i carry your heart with me (i carry it in my heart) i am never without it (anywhere
i go you go, my dear; and whatever is done
by only me is your doing, my darling)

i fear
no fate (for you are my fate, my sweet) i want no world (for beautiful you are my world, my true)
and it's you are whatever a moon has always meant and whatever a sun will always sing is you

here is the deepest secret
nobody knows

Thank you to my friends and family. You have been there for me every step of the way, and I couldn't ask for anything more!

Thank you to North Shore for the wonderful opportunities you offered me.

Special thanks to Mrs. Block, Mr. Randolph, Ms. Scanlan, Ms. Sherman, and Mrs. McHugh for all of your inspiration and mentoring. You have made high school a truly unforgettable experience. I will remember these days forever.

Jeannie,

ALL YOU REALLY NEED TO KNOW YOU LEARNED IN KINDERGARTEN

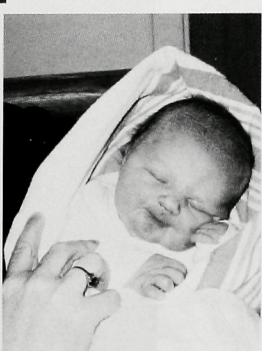

“These are the things [you] learned:

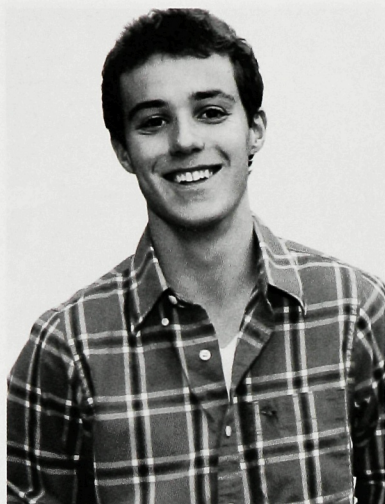

Share everything. Play fair. Don't hit people. Put things back where you found them. Clean up your own mess. Don't take things that aren't yours. Say you're sorry when you hurt somebody. Wash your hands before you eat. Flush. Warm cookies and cold milk are good for you. Live a balanced life – learn, think, draw and paint. Sing, dance, play and work some every day. Take a nap every afternoon.

When you go out in the world, watch out for traffic, hold hands and stick together. Be aware of wonder. Goldfish and hamsters and even white mice--they all die. So do we. And remember the Dick-and-Jane books and the first word you learned--the biggest word of all--LOOK.”

Jon, good news! The aliens have told me that they no longer want to suck out your brain because it is too full from completing high school. Good job! Love, Alien Kelly (and Earthling Rob).

P.S. Always keep hold of your towel!

Congratulations! We are so proud of you and the person you have become. You will find that you are "graduating" more often in life. You aren't just graduating from high school, you are graduating to the next step in your life, toward more independence, graduating toward your dreams and goals. Your future lies before you and we have no doubt that you can do anything you set your mind to. So dream big, little brother. We love you!

Buckley and Dixie,
Thank you for all the great memories we have made together! You've taught me so many important things, and without both of you in my life, I would not be the person I am today. You are like my little brother and sister, and I'm going to miss you so much next year! I can't wait to come back and visit and see how much you've grown.

Buckley: I will never give up on my goal of beating you in the NFL memory game, without Dixie's help!

Dixie: I will always look forward to getting the best haircut and mani-pedi from you!

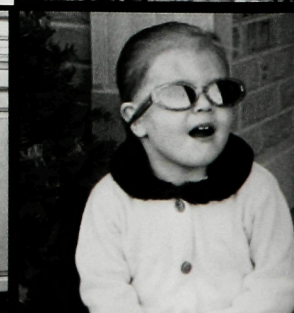

I love you both to the moon and back!

-Aleda xoxo

We are so proud of you! You are beautiful, kind, loving and intelligent. May you continue to achieve your goals and follow your dreams...

CONGRATULATIONS

to our Senior Yearbook Editors

Annie Roge - Rachel Mabie - Aleda Deuble - Jeannie Peters

THANK YOU

for sharing your many talents, for your hours of hard work, and for your cheerful, positive attitudes.

We know you will thrive in college and beyond, but we will miss you and your country music, your obsession with warped photobooth pictures, and your salty senses of humor. Come back to visit often!

Mr. C, Ms. H and Ms. P

NSFH,

Congrats on another awesome season!

ISL CHAMPS '08, '09, '10, '11!

Mr. Jessen,

Thanks for all you do to support the Mirror.
From your countless pictures to your extreme North Shore Raider Pride, we could not be more grateful. Thank you so much for everything!

--Mirror Faculty Advisors,
Editors, & Staff

Mr. Curren, Mrs. Hiland, and Ms. Puccia,

Thank you so much for being the best yearbook advisors we could have asked for! You have taught us so much about what it means to be leaders and the importance of working together.
Despite the stress we faced with deadlines, you always found a way to help us work through it and prepare us for the next challenge. We will never forget all the times spent in our office on the third floor and how much fun you made yearbook!
Thank you for making our last year as a part of the North Shore yearbook staff so memorable! We're going to miss you next year!

-Rachel Mabie, Aleda Deuble, Jeannie Peters, and Annie Roge

Torrey, you make me proud!

Congratulations Graduate!

The sky is the limit!

XOXO, Mom and Dad

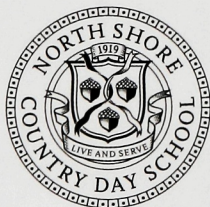

Dear Aleda,

You are my sunshine, my smiley sunshine
You make me happy most every day
You'll never know E, how much I'll miss you Please don't take my Aleda away

You are the best buddy ever! I will miss you so much!
